

A Day at the Beach

One hot day, we went to the beach. We were glad because it was a very, very hot day. My sister and I played in the cool water. We ran in the cool wind. We saw two fish. We saw lots of birds. We made things in the sand. We even ate at the beach. When we went home, we even had some of the beach with us. There was sand in our shoes. There was sand on us. There was sand on everything.
